How to Be Seen and Be Remembered For All the Right Reasons,

By Esther Nash

Are you tired of looking average when it comes to dressing? Do you want to let loose and break out of your cage once and for all? This issue, fashion designer Esther Nash will take you on a magic carpet ride to freedom in fashion. With her designs in your wardrobe, people will stop and stare and their eyes will focus on you like never before. Now you will be seen and remembered for all the right reasons.

Essential Items Needed:

1. fabric scissors
2. patches of material
3. needle and thread
4. safety pins and/or vintage pins
5. ruler or measuring tape
6. permanent markers, asst. colors

Step 1

It's time to update! Go through your closet and pick out a jacket that fits comfortably. Place the jacket on the floor or table, making sure you have plenty of room to work. Using a ruler to measure properly, cut jacket above waistline to show off your midriff. Leaving the edges frayed will give off a 'tougher than thou' attitude.

Step 2

Take your jacket and pick a sleeve to cut off so you can show off one of the arms. Cut sleeve by the armhole seam, this time leaving fringes to give a worn look.

Step 3

Take your patches, needle and thread, and sew the patches all over the jacket to give a unique, one-of-a-kind look.

Step 4

Take safety pins and place anywhere you desire. Using vintage pins around the collar and pockets will add to the design.

To complete your memorable ensemble, add these accessories available at Baby Doll Boutiques:

1. sequin glitter tube top
2. spark arm band
3. sequin minnie dream
4. ankle dazzler
