HOT COUTURE

WITH ESTHER NASH

NASH NYC FASHION ROCKS SOBE

They came from far and wide, by boat, by plane, by cab and by car. It was an invitation-only, VIP, A-list, private affair for friends and family and, of course, high society, celebrities, and the press.

It was the Pre-Gala Grand Opening of the Living Room Social Club. And it featured a fashion show by yours truly, Model, Illustrator and Fashion Designer, Esther Nash.

The Emcee was non-other than my sister, cultured urban debutante, in-house Counsel, P.R. executive, socialite, fashionista and princess, Rachel Nash, who modeled three of my designs as well. (Check out her website at www.BarristerNYC.com.)

myself. I design for the petite, athletic build. My designs are for new millennium socialites, who are looking to make a positive and lasting impression. My motto is "Be Seen and Be Remembered! Sparkle and Shine like the Super Star that you are!"

My fashions are designed to make anyone and everyone look like a model. It is not about the waist size, it's about the stitch and seam.

A special thanks to the family of the Living Room for hosting my fashion exposition. The renovation of the Living Room is eye candy appealing, with comfortable couches, secluded booths, beautiful lighting and a fantastic sound system. It is sexy and sophisticated and it's all at 671 Washington Avenue, Miami Beach.

I presented my "Baby Doll" line of "All American" low rider, hipster, hand painted, rock star jeans and traffic-stopping sequined berets, toppers and minis, in colors of "true blue", "purple heart", copper, "18K gold", and "sterling silver". Make-up was by Laura Mercier and the cosmetologist team from Neiman Marcus at the Bal Harbour Shops.

It had all had a Beverly Hills, Rodeo drive, Fifth Avenue, Country Club, Members Only Please effect. It was amazing. It was dazzling. It was the event of a lifetime. It was a spectacle to be witnessed - if I do say so
