

CONTRIBUTORS

Jasmine Dotiwalla

As head of MTV BASE- MTV's global hip-hop lifestyle channel, Jasmine concentrates on giving everyone from Jay Z and 50 Cent to Mariah and Eminem the 'Jasmine treatment' for her interviews and MTV branded shows 'Making The Video', 'Diary of...' and 'Cribs'. Jasmine writes a weekly column in the UK's number 1 selling ethnic newspaper The Voice as well as a monthly column in Ocean Style, the Caribbean's biggest fashion and culture glossy magazine. Jasmine regularly appears on music industry panels and at community events. She is also an active member of the MTV Europe Diversity Council and is involved in a number of charities including the African Caribbean Leukaemia Trust.

Esther Nash

Esther Nash, a New York based fashion designer, model, socialite & fashion expert, is the epitome of a chick on a quest. The fashion world's former prodigy is all grown up. At the age of 18, Esther owned and operated her first retail store. She had her own runway shows by 21. With a good family background, Esther is a 3rd generation New Yorker and a graduate of the most prestigious, accredited Art and Fashion school of NYC. Ms. Nash's fashions have been featured on Sex and the City. Her last runway show (she has had over 2 dozen) was notably attended by Vogue's Editor in Chief Anna Wintour. Esther's next goal is to acquire a position as a fashion host of her own TV/cable show. Keep your ears and eyes open, as you will be seeing a lot more of Esther Nash!

Robert Manella

New York based Robert Manella has been a professional photographer for more than 20 years. While studying as Art Major in London, Robert picked up the camera and hasn't stopped shooting since. A regular contributor to Ocean Style and our Director of Photography, Robert has a vast knowledge and passion for photography. Talented across many different genres - lifestyle, beauty, fashion, stock or architecture.

