TIMMY Award Winners for Best Solo Artists, D-n-A

The 4TH Annual TIMMY Awards Ceremony is the crowning result of talent featured in the past years' publications. Professionals and celebrities in the entertainment industry attended the event, held at ONE 51, a premiere NY restaurant and nightclub. The format of the show, much like the OSCARS featured music and dance performances by outstanding New York talent, as well as a vintage fashion show by Baby Doll Boutique featuring Designer, Esther Nash. Hosted by Laura Lipschitz of MTV's Say What? Karaoke and sponsored by Bacardi USA and Sevelin Cosmetics, the TIMMY Awards was the ultimate tribute to the performing and visual artist.

And the TIMMY Goes To...

Well, if a TIMMY Award could've gone to the best dressed, it would've been a tough choice on this night. The invitation requested that everyone "dress to impress" and I can honestly say that the attendees and performers made an impressive effort.

It was the ideal event to don your most fun, spiciest, creative attire and just go for it! The attendees were obviously in agreement considering the abundance of sequins, feathers and fur that was worn. The MC, Laura Lipschitz, set the pace in her outrageous dress with a furry collar and sleeves. Publisher of TIM Magazine, Brooks, as well as designs from the fashion show, made an interesting statement with sequin berets and shiny body art (by Rainbow Heart), giving the room an overwhelmingly glitzy aura. The smoke-filled room with multicolored lights and microbeams of light shooting across the room from the sequins gave me the sensation of a time warp back to '77 and a night out at Studio 54.
