

Esther Nash Prodigy Girl in Town

What's most outstanding about this New York fashion designer is her age. So far, she has opened three boutiques in New York City, with a selection of vintage retro, rock star style; both from other designers and her own. "My designs are made for people who want to be seen and remembered," declares with a big charismatic smile. A New York-born, Nash has repeatedly said to be more in tune with South Beach than Chelsea (where one of her boutiques is located). So recently, she decided to move to Miami, where she is making herself quickly known.

More information: www.babydollboutique.com

